Bon Mots Productions Presents “Three Queens” at the 2024 Hamilton Fringe Festival Fringe Mini Series

Bon Mots Productions is proud to present its production of Three Queens; a late night talk show like you’ve never seen. Chuckles and laughs with some reflection, and “I didn’t know that”, at the 2024 Hamilton Fringe Festival Fringe Mini Series! Funky talk show host, Rupert Wells will introduce you to some amazing guests. How did they get here? Are we in the past, present or future? With playwright Valeri Kay, you never can be quite sure. From the opening upbeat theme music, courtesy of renowned Hamilton musician Charly Chiarelli, to the final curtain call, you will be amazed at what Rupert’s guests reveal and get up to. And one of the cast is actually related to one of the guests. But is he actually a cast member? Come join us for 20 minutes of fun and a bit of a history lesson laced with humor, thanks to our talented cast who can’t wait to share their antics with you and make you part of the action.

Bon Mots Productions is a group of seasoned Hamilton performers. We came together this year to share some fun with our audience and reveal some things maybe you probably didn’t know about some very interesting characters. This is a cast of accomplished actors. This is Valeri’s fourth play for the Hamilton Fringe Festival, having written WHY, which won Best in Series Mini Bar in 2023, Prairie Odyssey and Der Zug, previously. This year she is sitting in the director’s chair, well not actually doing too much sitting with all the action.
